FAITHFUL AND TRUE

“Pappa, we now know that Jesus taught us how selfishness produces the fruit of decay and death. He revealed our inability to be eternal, and that quite frankly, decay does not smell very nice. But we also now know that His story was meant to lead us back to the top of the mountain. He wants us to be intimate with the Father as He is. We have the privilege of choosing which covenants we enter into, and are responsible for the fruit that comes from those choices. Good fruit is not possible unless we are faithful and true to the covenants we chose. And so we receive You, God, to be our faithfulness and our true because You are the Faithful and True. Come and be the fulfillment of the covenants we chose, and thereby the source of the good fruit that we yield, and so change the world forever!!”

INHALE

“Pappa, the moments when You are silent can be very disconcerting for Your people on earth. We believe in the invisible realm, but confess that we do still need to learn how to live in it, especially in the small places that are easy to miss. When You exhale, Your breath covers us, fills us, and causes great blessing and fruit. It is hard not to want You to exhale only for the rest of our lives! But as we mature, we realize that like us, You want and need to inhale. We will not react out of fear, or worse accusation, crying at You. We grow up and choose to respond and participate. We inhale Your exhale. You inhale our exhale. So we choose to give You something to inhale! When You are silent, we choose to worship You. We choose to pour out from our hearts what is deep inside our sacred place. We give to You the seed of our love, just as You have given us Your seed. We declare the testimonies of what You have done through us! That new thing that did not exist before, but does now! Your power alone is great, but your power through us makes the ‘acharown latter greater than the rishon former! You become greater after us than before! And so we participate in that now, before the wedding, by being Your inhale. Amen.”

TABLES

“Pappa, we receive from Jesus the picture of intimacy. We choose to sit at His table and receive our return to You. We remember who You are, and through You, remember who we are. Our communion allows us to also reconcile to the story that You have written on our hearts. Thank You, Pappa. We are so overwhelmed with joy at each portion of discovery that reveals how glorious You are. Thank You for having a table so wonderful. Thank You for inviting to dine with You. The fabric of Your tables was created to multiply, and so we break the bread, give thanks and watch as You honor covenant by bringing growth. We know that our inheritance is exponentially greater than what You originally gave us because of this. Now we have much to give away. Our tables are laden with a glorious feast so many will see how good You are. Love is made visible when it exudes from the hearts of Your maturing sons and daughters. You have our choice. We open our tables to all persons: the rich and the undesirable. Every person is welcome at the table because it is a reflection of who You are. You welcome all. And so we do too. Amen.”
